

WxBrief Copilot – Privacy Policy

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Zarmada LLC ("Company," "we," "us," or "our") operates the WxBrief Copilot mobile application (the "App") and related services (collectively, the "Service"). We are committed to protecting user privacy and being transparent about how information is collected, used, and safeguarded.

This Privacy Policy explains how information is handled when you use the App.

1. Scope of This Policy

This Privacy Policy applies solely to the WxBrief Copilot App. It does not apply to any third-party websites, services, or applications that may be linked from or integrated with the App.

2. Information We Collect

We collect only the information reasonably necessary to operate, secure, and maintain the App.

2.1 Information You Provide

Certain account information provided by the user, including an email address, is collected as part of the account set-up process. The Company collects this information for account authentication, account management, customer support, and service communications purposes.

2.2 Information Collected Automatically

When you use the App, limited additional information may be collected automatically as part of normal app and server operations, including:

- IP address
- Device type and operating system (high-level only)
- App version
- Date and time of access
- General diagnostic or error information necessary to maintain Service reliability and security

Information contained under this clause is collected automatically for the sole purpose of operating and securing the Service. The Company will not use this information for advertising, and it is not shared with third parties for marketing purposes.

2.3 Information We Do Not Intentionally Collect

We do not intentionally collect:

- Precise or approximate location data
- Contacts or address book data
- Audio, microphone, or camera data
- Advertising identifiers
- Cross-app or cross-site tracking data

3. Tracking and Advertising

WxBrief Copilot does not:

- Track users across apps or websites
- Use third-party advertising SDKs
- Display third-party advertisements
- Use data for behavioral advertising or marketing profiling

As a result, App Tracking Transparency (ATT) permission is generally not required.

4. Payments and Subscriptions

Payments and subscriptions may be processed through Stripe, Apple App Store, Google Play, or other third-party payment processors, depending on how you purchase the Service.

The Company does not store full payment card numbers or billing details.

Payment processing is governed by the applicable third-party processor's privacy policy and terms.

5. How We Use Information

Any information collected by the Company, either provided by the user or collected automatically, is used solely to:

- Provide and operate the App
- Authenticate users and manage accounts
- Maintain security and prevent abuse
- Diagnose technical issues and improve reliability
- Respond to user inquiries and support requests
- Comply with applicable legal obligations

We do not use personal information for advertising, marketing, or profiling.

6. Service Providers

We may use trusted third-party service providers to host infrastructure, monitor reliability, process payments, and provide customer support or other services. These providers may process limited personal information on our behalf, for the sole purpose of providing such services to us. These providers are contractually required to protect any personal information.

7. Automated Processing and AI Services

Certain Service features may use automated processing, including machine learning and/or artificial intelligence (AI), to generate summaries, interpretations, or visualizations.

Information submitted for processing may be transmitted to third-party infrastructure or AI providers solely to generate the requested output and operate the Service.

We do not allow third-party AI providers to use personal information submitted through the Service to train their models, except where explicitly disclosed or required for their service operation.

8. Data Sharing and Disclosure

We do not sell, rent, or trade personal information.

We may share limited information only in the following circumstances:

- When required to comply with applicable law, legal process, or government requests
- To protect the rights, safety, or security of the Company, users, or the public
- With service providers as described above, solely to operate the App

9. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as is reasonably necessary to:

- Maintain your account
- Provide the Service
- Comply with any legal, accounting, or regulatory requirements

If you request account deletion, your account information will be deleted or anonymized within a reasonable period, unless retention is required by law.

10. Data Security

We endeavour to implement reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational safeguards designed to protect information against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

However, no method of electronic storage or transmission is 100% secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security, nor can we be held liable for any loss of information caused by any potential future breach, beyond what is required by law.

11. Your Rights and Choices

Depending on your location and its applicable laws, you may have the right to:

- Access a record of personal information we hold about you
- Request correction or deletion of your information
- Object to or restrict certain processing activities

You may request account deletion through the App.

12. California Privacy Rights (CCPA/CPRA)

We do not sell or share personal information, in accordance with relevant terms defined under California law.

California residents may request access to or deletion of personal information by contacting us directly using the information in the “Contact Us” section below.

13. Children’s Privacy

The App is not intended for children under the age of 13.

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children. If we become aware that personal information has been collected from a child, we will take reasonable steps to delete it.

14. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may modify or update this Privacy Policy at any time.

If changes are material, we may notify users through the App and/or require you to acknowledge and agree to such changes before continuing to use the Service.

The effective date at the top of this Policy indicates when it was last updated.
